Fr. Seraphim is a first generation immigrant. He arrived in the US in early 1950 and became a naturalized citizen in 1956. His father was an Orthodox priest and his mother was a Lecturer of Russian at UCLA and USC.

He met his future wife at his father's church in Los Angeles and they were married in 1972.

He was ordained to the priesthood in 1973 and served parishes in Maine, Oregon, California, Connecticut, and Colorado.

He currently serves as pastor of St. John Chrysostom Antiochian Orthodox Church in Lakewood, CO.

He also volunteers as the Orthodox Chaplain at FCI Englewood, the Federal Prison near Lakewood, CO, teaches Ethics in the Denver College of Nursing BSN program, and mentors the OCF at the Colorado School of Mines.
